DEDICATION

We the graduating class of 1976 have chosen to dedicate our year book to the two teachers we admire most. Voted by this class were Mr. Gardner of the English department and Mr. McMahon of the History department.

Mr. Gardner arrived at Marshfield High School at the beginning of our Junior year. Since that time he has made many friendships, (as well as reinforcing the antics of Groucho Marx in the minds of his students).

Mr. McMahon, alias T. McMahon, has come to gain the title of Mr. Muscle. His punch lines shall always excell, even those of Sue Davis.

We thank both teachers for the leadership they have shown us.

The Marshfield Rams, after getting off to a slow start, won their last two games in a row, ending the season with a 28-0 victory over Scituate in a driving rain. The team ended up 5-5, good for a fourth place finish in the Old Colony League. Junior tackle Peter Gray was elected to the all league team, while Austin Fowler, John Downing, Mike Jaroma, and Bill White were named honorable mention. Co-Captains, Mike Parks and Fred Byrne, along with Rob Dempsey, John Walls, Chris Walls, Chuck Haddad, Steve Keough, Kevin O'Shea, Paul Doyle, Gary Dam and Paul Smith were senior starters. The coaching staff will miss these athletes as 1976 looks like a rebuilding year.
